

Seelster Farms

is proud to sponsor the Camluck Classic.

What started with a single filly bought by Frank and Gerarda VanBussel, when they immigrated to Canada with their twelve children, has grown to the largest commercial breeding farm for Standardbred racehorses in Canada. Fast forward fifty years; Seelster today is owned and managed by Frank and Gerarda's three granddaughters and has grown its broodmare band to 80. Eight stallions also make their home at Seelster and 50 yearlings will be sold at public auction this fall that bear the Seelster name.

Thank you to the Raceway at Western Fair District and to all those, past and present, who are embroidered on the fabric of this great sport - we look forward to being a part of it for many years to come.

Join us for the Infield Party at the Raceway on Saturday, May 26th
